

GRASSROOTS ADVOCACY TRAINING at EXPOSE AIPAC

WASHINGTON DC - MARCH 2, 2013

GAIN IMPORTANT SKILLS FOR YOUR ACTIVISM & EXPOSE AIPAC'S PUSH FOR WAR!

Join Interfaith Peace-Builders, CODEPINK, the Fellowship of Reconciliation, the U.S. Campaign to End the Israeli Occupation and other national groups for the Grassroots Advocacy Training at the Expose AIPAC mobilization in Washington DC. The event will provide seasoned organizers and new activists with the skills and experience needed to make a real impact.

This past year, AIPAC has provided cover for Israel to continue war crimes against Gaza with impunity, ensured the continuation of weapons transfers to Israel and pushed for war on Iran. We need you to join us in Washington D.C. to show the growing opposition to AIPAC's influence and US complicity in the oppression of Palestinians.

As Barack Obama begins his second term as US President, the importance of grassroots action has never been greater! The results of the election raise new challenges and provide new signs of hope.

Join us in Washington DC to show the growing opposition to AIPAC's influence and US complicity in the oppression of Palestinians and the push to go to war with Iran!

THE SKILLS & EXPERIENCE OUR MOVEMENT NEEDS

The event will feature presenters at the forefront of the movement for peace and justice in Palestine/Israel, including Phyllis Bennis, Medea Benjamin, Laila el-Haddad, Rebecca Vilkomerson, Josh Ruebner and others. For an updated list of presenters see www.ifpb.org/education/grassroots/2013

Presentations and workshops provide expert analysis and essential skills on current topics for US-based activists, providing participants with additional information and new resources on some of the following topics:

- AIPAC and the Politics of the Present: Assessing Strengths, Weaknesses and Alternatives
- Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions 101: An Introduction to Strategic Organizing
- Ending Military Aid to Israel: Mobilizing for Policy Change in Your Community
- Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions Campaigns in Progress (spotlight on TIAA-CREF, SodaStream, and more)
- Translating Experience into Action: Using Your Trip to Palestine/Israel to Launch Your Activism
